Are You a M.A.T.E.?

Miss Ringland's class had some special guests this week from Shepherd Middle School's "We will" class taught by Mrs. Corbridge that encourages how to be a M.A.T.E. and good citizenship. The middle school students came over to read their "ABC book of Manners" that each middle school student created. Each kindergarten student got to keep their own personalized copy! The kindergartners' favorite manner was "M-make friends"!

Historical Commission Seeking Members

If you want to make a difference in your community and preserve our local history and heritage, San Jacinto County is seeking dedicated volunteers who are able and willing to serve on the San Jacinto County Historical Commission.

In January of odd-numbered years, the County Commissioners Court appoints members to the local County Historical Commission for two year terms. This time frame is quickly approaching and the Commissioners are asking anyone interested in being on the Historical Commission to immediately notify the Court of their interest and willingness.

The local commission is responsible for the identification and preservation of locally significant historical landmarks and treasurers, as outlined in the Texas Local Government Code, chapter 318

Anyone interested in serving their community through membership in the San Jacinto County Historical Commission should pick up an application at any of the four Commissioner's Precinct offices or at the Courthouse in the Office of County Judge or by phone at (936) 653-2199.

Did you know...

by Yvonne Ryba

Well, the news this week from my kitchen window is that I saw a fox in my backyard. He (or she) had a beautiful golden red coat with white markings and a bushy tail. When he saw me watching him, he loped off into the trees. It is amazing what you can see from my kitchen window! Since I often see a rabbit in this area, the fox may have been looking for it.

Several of Shepherd Public Library staff attended an inaugural meeting of a consortium of libraries in the Central East Texas area. As President of the Friends of Shepherd Library, I went along too. It was a most interesting meeting and the new directors of Coldspring Library were also attending. The idea behind the gathering was to 'strengthen our communities by strengthening our libraries.' Special guests from the Tocker Foundation, which helps small rural libraries were there as well as the Board President of CETA, This stands for Central East Texas Alliance. Coldspring Chamber of Commerce is one of the founding members of this almost three year old organization, which seeks to help small communities like ours with grants and information. The meeting was in Onalaska and was organized by the Library Director there, Sherry Brecheen. We had a really good lunch too! Thank you Sherry for making this idea grow into reality.

Our libraries are one of the few, in fact often the only, facility in a small community which is available to all age groups. People use them to fax documents, use the computers, find forms and get information as well as take out books and movies. Children's programs and author's signing parties are some of the events libraries often organize. Shepherd Library staff also work when the Food Truck comes to town.

By the way, the next date for the Food Truck is November 21, which is a Monday. This is not the usual day but this month it will be there to help with Thanksgiving Dinner! The food distributed is free to anyone but you must walk through the line and collect a ticket, which you then present to the food servers. This food is brought by the Houston Food Bank, which has the rule that food be given to those who show up and get a ticket. I know that many people come and wait in line for this very helpful distribution. For more information call (936) 628-3515, Shepherd Library.

Thanksgiving is almost here and then it will be Christmas! A new and welcome shopping place for the latter will be held in Shepherd on Saturday November 26 next to Maria Self's Feed Store on Loop 424. "Shepherd's Christmas Vendor Fair" will feature "Pictures with Santa!" who will be there to help you create your own Christmas picture. There is a $10 sitting fee for this. Vendors can rent a space for $20. There is an information packet available on request and space is limited. The last Fair was very busy so it will be first come first served. Call Ashley at (936) 365-3684.

Need answers to you business questions? Not sure about the rules and regulations of your business? Call your local chamber to make an appointment with Director Bob Barragan. Bob travels to 10 counties in our area helping people with their problems. He is Director of the Sam Houston State S.B.D.C.
