Students Perform Contraction Surgery

Shepherd Primary First graders have been busy at work learning about contractions. Students in Mrs. Anderson's class created contractions by performing "surgery". The students cut words apart and then bandaged them back together where the apostrophe goes, in order to make contractions. Pictured with the class project are students Garon Scott, Allie Davis, and Lia McCallum.

Did you know...

We have two Job Fairs coming to our area. Last week I talked about the Shepherd EDC hosting one in Shepherd Community Center on March 31. If you miss that one, make sure to visit Coldspring EDC's Job Fair on April 15. This one will be held in the Jones Educational Complex in Coldspring from 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Free tables are available to businesses and this is a really good way to see what jobs are out there in our community. Connie Straus is the woman to talk to if you would like a table for your business, or just need more info. Call her at (936) 653-8445 or (936) 653-2184. If you want to attend the Shepherd EDC Job Fair, call Earl Brown at (832) 599-2260.

Living in the country does not mean there is nothing to do or that social life is missing! Here are some really interesting events coming up in our county. On April 8 there will be a 'Lunch and Learn' in Coldspring Community Center. The speaker is Stacy Osbourne who will talk on how local business is affected by events. Lunch is free but you must reserve your place, please call (936) 653-2184. This event is hosted by Coldspring EDC, go to their web site for more details, www.coldspring-edc.com

If you would like to treat your assistants, secretary or staff members to lunch, bring them to 'Administrative Professionals Appreciation Luncheon' on April 22. This is a great opportunity for bosses to show their appreciation of their hard working staff. Lunch will cost $15 and must be purchased in advance. There will be door prizes and gifts but the biggest attraction, apart from the delicious food, will be the guest speaker, Tuggy Hamzy. Tuggy and her family own WHH Ranch in Shepherd, the oldest family run food manufacturers in Texas. Tuggy is a dynamic speaker and this will be a wonderful way to treat your staff on their Appreciation Day. To know more about the Hamzy products look at their web site whhranchco@gmail.com . To reserve your place, call Coldspring Chamber at (936) 653-2184.
