Fundraiser

Ingredients

- 5-10 ounces tuna, drained or 3 cups shredded chicken or turkey breasts
(Starkist Chunk Light Tuna in water 2.6oz pouch on sale $0.88!)
- 3 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil
- 1/2 large diced onion
(yellow onions on sale 2lbs/$0.89!)
- 3-4 mini Bella mushrooms, sliced
- 4 oz. cream cheese
- 1/2 cup sour cream
- 1 (10.5 oz.) can mushroom soup
- 3/4 cup milk
- 8 oz. pasta of your choice
- 1 cup shredded Colby jack cheese
(Borden's shredded cheddar cheese 8oz. on sale 2/$4.00!)
- 1 cup French fried onions
- Salt and pepper to taste

Directions:

- Preheat your oven to 375° F.
- Slice the mushrooms and dice the onions.
- Lightly grease your baking dish with cooking spray.
- Start your pasta water cooking. While the water is heating, heat the olive oil in a large frying pan over medium heat. Once the oil is heated, add the onions and mushrooms and saute until the onions are translucent. After the onions are done, add your pasta to the water and cook until al dente (7 minutes or so).
- Add the mushroom soup, cream cheese, sour cream, milk and garlic powder to the frying pan and heat until it's hot. Season with salt and pepper to your tastes once it's all warmed up.
- Drain the pasta well and add to the pan and stir to mix. Make sure your pasta gets covered well.
- Once you've mixed the pasta well, add the tuna (make sure it is well drained) or cooked chicken to your pan and mix it all up again. Pour the mixture into your baking dish.
- Add the shredded cheese on top. If you want more cheese, go for it. There's no such thing as too much cheese! If you're making this as a freezer meal, stop now and follow the baking instructions.
- If you're making this amazing casserole recipe for tonight's dinner, sprinkle the french fried onions on top the bake at 375 degrees°F for 10 minutes or just until the onions are golden brown.

Make it a Meal! This easy grillin' side would go perfect with some grilled chicken! Serve with any green vegetable of your choice or a crisp green salad to make this a complete and delicious meal Recipe found at www.sixdollarfamily.com

HELLO JULY

Senior Citizen Center Newsletter

WOW! What a month we had in June. We had a piece of equipment fail and smoked up the place! So you make the best of things when bad things happen, right? We took the opportunity to do a little updating and redecorating. We still have changes coming, but we accomplished some needed improvements. We had to close for 5 days, but we have an awesome staff and what a beautiful job they did! Including opening up and cooking while finishing touches are being done. You have to know that they pulled together as a team and made wonderful things happen. In my opinion the word "AWESOME" is applicable to our team! All the volunteers, staff members, donations, and work crews are absolutely the greatest! Mr. G., you and your crew are amazing and true friends! If you have some time to spare and would like to contribute your time, we have lots of small projects that we could use help on. Touch up painting, small carpentry projects, lighting, etc. Every little bit helps. If you can come, please call and let us know what you can do and when you can be here. We would be grateful for any contribution you can help us with.

Come see our facelift and join us for lunch Monday thru Friday, but remember we are still a working progress and some things are not quite finished. We serve lunch at 11:30 a.m., so give us a call by 9:30 a.m. at (936) 628-3733 and let us know you are coming and we will set a place at the table for you. We strive to have home cooked meals. When we say Macaroni & Cheese, it is not from a box. Potatoes are not instant, we peel and mash them ourselves. McClain's Food Market helps us keep fresh produce at good prices for delicious salad each day. Our suppliers help us keep fresh products. This is a true team effort from Shepherd Senior Citizens staff to do the best job we can to provide home cooked, hot, nutritious meals to our friends. Join us for your favorites! Our menu is published in McClain's Community News and San Jacinto News Times. And they are more members of our network of caring community services. I have always heard it takes a village to raise a child. Well, I have decided it takes a village to care for senior citizens that have served their families and community for years without fail. It is time we return the favor. Come visit us, enjoy a meal and visit our resale shop, treasures are found in material things, but sometime treasures are found in friendships. Our resale shop is open from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Records to be Destroyed

San Jacinto County Special Services Cooperative (serving Shepherd ISD and Goodrich ISD) will destroy special education records for students who either graduated within 2010-2012 or were no longer in the program after these dates.

If parents or former students wish to have the information in the records, a request must be made in writing and received by the special education office by July 20, 2017. Requests should be addressed to Charlene Lowe, Special Education Director, 1401 South Byrd Avenue, Shepherd, Tx 77371.

Records that are not requested will be destroyed July 31, 2017.

New Releases Coming to McClain's DVD Kiosk

The Zookeeper's Wife (PG-13) biography/drama: Tells the account of the Warsaw Zoo, Antonia and Jan Zabinski, who helped save hundreds of people and animals during the German invasion. Starring: Jessica Chastain, Johan Heldenbergh, Daniel Brühl

McClain's does not maintain Cajun DVD movie kiosk and therefore cannot guarantee all movie releases

It may seem strange to celebrate Christmas just after we have enjoyed July 4th, but on Thursday, July 27 starting at 5:30 p.m. the Coldspring Area Business and Merchants Association (CABMA) will host a social called ‘Christmas on the Square’. Bring your lawn chairs and enjoy an evening of fun and entertainment. You may find yourself a judge of the ‘Cookie Contest’. Yes, the judges will be the public, so make sure you are a part of this fun festivity! On Saturday, following in the Christmas theme, the merchants on the Courthouse Square will decorate for the occasion to create “Christmas in July”. Vendors will sell their Christmas themed goodies on the Square too so, even in the heat we will have a taste of Christmas Holiday. CABMA have a Facebook page where they ask everyone to bring a lawn chair so they can sit and relax and enjoy the entertainment provided. The Bank of San Jacinto will provide homemade ice cream; there will be refreshments, games and lots of fun! This is one of those small town events, which make living here a delight. Call Danielle, President of CABMA, for more information at (832) 646-9888. The businesses around the Square will be open for both July 27 and 28 to celebrate an early Christmas. Coldspring Area Public Library will host a special event on Thursday, July 13. This will be their 2017 Book review, Dessert Party and Silent Auction. Tickets are $10 and include all the dessert you can eat! The party begins at 2:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. The Guest Speaker is John Foxjohn who was born in the Pineywoods of East Texas. He is a prolific writer who used his early experiences to create the atmosphere in his many books. The event will take place in the Coldspring United Methodist Fellowship Hall. Our libraries are wonderful meeting and learning places. This is a fundraiser for Coldspring Library, call (936) 653-3104 for more information. Shepherd Chamber of Commerce President Joe Williamson is resigning from his position to give him more time to recuperate from his recent operation. I am pleased to say he is doing well but needs to take things easy for a while. Helenmarie Johnson is also resigning as Chamber Secretary, a position she has filled with great success, to focus on her other projects. We will miss both of these very worthy people. If you are interested in becoming part of Shepherd Chamber board, call the Chamber number below. First Founders Insurance celebrated its first year in Coldspring at the end of June. Located next door to Joe’s Italian restaurant on Route 150, call in to see Lacie Smith, agency owner/broker or call her at (936) 653-2494. Chamber members, would you like to inform readers of some special event you will be having in your business? Call your chamber and I will be pleased to write about it!

Contact your chamber for an appointment with Director Bob Barragan of the S.B.D.C.
This is a free service to business and would be business owners. Questions, advice and 'how to' create proposals etc. are all welcome.
