You may have seen the news about Coldspring’s Subway restaurant ribbon- cutting, when they joined the Coldspring San Jacinto Chamber of Commerce, in last week’s newspaper. In case you missed it, this Subway is located at 14901 Hwy 150, and has a roomy sitting area for those who of you who can’t just can’t wait to eat your sandwich! Call them at (936) 653-8610. The service is friendly and the food is fresh and delicious. There have been some changes in eating places in Coldspring, with The Mason Jar expanding their premises to include a full bar and by next week, their Patio will be ready for customers. Owners Jerri Dale and James Young plan to include lots more changes, ‘Steak Night’ is one; ‘All You Can Eat Catfish Night’ is another. This restaurant serves excellent food and has extended its hours. Call (936) 653-2577 for more info. The Mason

Jar is located across from the Courthouse at 35, Hwy 1514. Spirit Whispers in Shepherd has expanded its services to include Chi Gung, Meditations and ‘A Conversation with Nancy’. Chi Gung classes led by Tim Gill are held every Monday at 7:00 p.m, and cost just $10 each. What is Chi Gung? It is a combination of Tai Chi and Qigong, which means it is very suitable for older people. The health benefits of Chi Gung are many and include increase strength, lower blood pressure and reduction of pain. Meditation classes are every Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. and are free, although love offerings are welcome. Meditation is a peaceful and relaxing time spent with like minded people. Meditation is usually guided with soft music and a soothing voice helping everyone to enjoy the experience. A new addition is ‘An Evening with Nancy’ on the third Tuesday of every month. Nancy channels messages and explains how she receives these messages to the group. The cost is $10. For more information, go to the Spirit Whispers Facebook page. For information on any of these programs you can also call (281) 761-8027. Spirit Whispers is located at 11231 Hwy 150, suite 6.
