Shepherd Senior Citizen's Center Newsletter

We survived another storm. We pray you and your family fared well through it all. School is back in session and we ask all drivers to watch for our future officers of congress, senate, mayors, councils, police etc. as they make their way to and from schools. They are a precious commodity that are our future leaders. We will be finishing up the Self-Management Pain classes this month. Those of you that joined us for the free classes, thank you for attending and we are happy that we were able to do this for you. Bingo, hosted by Woodland Park Rehab & Care will be the first Thursday of the month. We appreciate them coming and love sharing a meal with the residents and helping provide a local outing for them. Thank you to all the staff that helps make this happen, you are awesome and appreciated!! Our resale shop opens at 8:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. On the first and third Friday of the month, we have BAG DAY. Fill a grocery bag with clothing only (no accessories) for $3. What a deal! We are in a caring community that is supportive of what we do and provide us with their gently used discarded items that serves two purposes by providing citizens with items at affordable prices and also produces a small income for us that helps support our services. Please do not drop off non-working electronics, damaged or destroyed items that we cannot use or sell. We are seniors and do not have staff that can move or remove these heavy items. Please be a considerate and responsible donor. Our center opens from 8:00 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. We serve lunch from 11:30 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. Call us at (936) 628-3733 by 9:30 a.m. and let us know you are coming to join us and we will set a place at the table for you. We have several citizens that come and play cards or dominoes. Get a couple friends and get your own group of players to play Yahtzee, Scrabble, UNO, or another game, we have several to choose from. You can begin as early as 8:00 a.m., stop for lunch, one day a week or 5 days a week, your choice! We offer coffee, water, lemonade or tea and snacks if we have them....and remember, we have a breakfast fund raiser each Tuesday and Thursday from 7:00 a.m. till 8:30 a.m. We offer 2 biscuits and sausage gravy for $2.00, you can add 2 eggs for an additional $1.00. Occasionally we will have pancakes and sausage patty for $2.00. The breakfast fund raiser, only, can be made to go if you call it in and pick it up by 8:30 a.m. The breakfast is a donation from one of our many supporters, Drew's Landing Baptist Church. We appreciate their help in serving the community in which we live. Pick a day that you like the menu, gather your friends, call us, come play and eat. We hope you will come see us soon!

Cajun Potato Salad

Ingredients:

- 3 slices bacon, cooked crisp and chopped, set aside for garnish, drippings reserved (Rath bacon 12oz on sale $3.77)
- 3 large eggs
- 2 large pinches of kosher salt for the water pot
- 1 tablespoon of liquid crab boil
- kosher salt and freshly cracked black pepper, to taste
- 1 teaspoon of big flake Cajun/Creole seasoning, or to taste, plus extra for garnish (see note)

Directions:

• Cook bacon to crisp; set aside and reserve drippings. Rinse and scrub potatoes, peel and cut into cubes or chunks. Place into a pot of fresh water and cover with twice as much water; tuck the eggs down into the potatoes to cushion them; bring to a boil. Add a couple of generous pinches of kosher salt and the crab boil, and boil just until the potatoes are tender - time will depend on the type and size of the potato, but don't overcook. Test by piercing with a sharp knife. Drain potatoes well and set aside to cool. Remove eggs and plunge them into ice water to stop the cooking process. • Once cooled, transfer the potatoes to a serving bowl and sprinkle with salt, pepper and Cajun or Creole seasoning, to taste; gently toss. Add onion, celery, and bell pepper. Peel and chop the eggs and add to the potatoes; gently toss. Combine reserved bacon drippings, mayonnaise, mustard, and relish. Pour over potatoes and gently toss. If not serving immediately, cover and refrigerate to allow flavors to blend. Just before serving, sprinkle the top very lightly with additional Cajun/Creole seasoning. Finely chop the cooked bacon and garnish the top of the potato salad with the bacon and the sliced green onion.

Cook's Notes: Substitute any type chopped pickle for the Chow Chow if desired. I use Zatarain's liquid shrimp and crab boil, Zatarain's Creole mustard and Zatarain's Big & Zesty Original Creole seasoning. I thought that the larger flake of the Big & Zesty would let the seasonings show through better on the potatoes and make for a nice presentation. If you substitute a more finely ground Cajun or Creole seasoning, I thought that the larger flake of the Big & Zesty would let the seasonings show through better on the potatoes and make for a nice presentation. If you substitute a more finely ground Cajun or Creole seasoning than the Big & Zesty, keep in mind you will probably need less, so take that into consideration when seasoning. Use less, taste and then adjust.

Variation: Shrimp Potato Salad: When adding the chopped eggs, add in one pound of medium (51/60 count) peeled, cooked shrimp. Then dress with the mayo blend.

Make it a Meal! It's Labor Day weekend! Add this Cajun potato salad to your cook out along with slow-cooked barbecue spareribs (Medium Pork Spareribs on sale $1.49lb!) and grilled buttery corn on the cob (on sale 2/$0.88!) and don't forget to grab a sweet juicy seedless watermelon (on sale 2/$5.00!) before they're gone until next summer! Recipe found at www.deepsouthdish.com

- 1/2 cup chopped onion (yellow onions on sale $0.39lb!)
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup chopped bell pepper
- 1 cup of real mayonnaise
- 1 tablespoon spicy mustard, or to taste
- 1 tablespoon of Chow Chow relish, optional (Wasc pickle relish 10oz on sale 5/$5.00!)
- 1 green onion, sliced, for garnish

Did You Know?

by Yvonne Ryba

Are you sick of cleaning your car’s windshield? Judging from the millions of black ‘Love bugs’ we are all killing every time we drive anywhere, I am amazed there are still so many left! You can hardly see through the windshield by the time you travel twenty miles. Hopefully, they will have disappeared by October 7, which is when our Historical Commission celebrates Heritage Day. This annual event is the time when everyone can enjoy a little glimpse of life from many years ago and at the same time, have a lot of fun. Held in Old Town Coldspring, located by the Jailhouse Museum, there will be exhibitions of corn husk doll making, spinning wheels in operation, artists at work and vendors selling their wares. If you want to enter the ‘Lemonade Contest’ register at (936) 653-2332 and talk to Barbara Shelton. The event starts at 10:00 a.m. At 12:00 p.m. there will be a reenactment of ‘A Shotgun Wedding’ followed at 1:00 p.m. with ‘A Hanging’. Of course actors will entertain in these comedic scenes and you can dress in period costume if you like. The day closes at 3:00 p.m. If you would like to be a vendor at this ‘blast from the past’, call Barbara for information. Coldspring - San Jacinto County Chamber of Commerce will hold their quarterly Lunch on September 19 when the guest speaker will be Dr. Leland Moore, the Superintendent of CO-ISD. Lunch starts at noon, the cost is $15 and food is catered by ‘The Mason Jar’. This will also be a chance to see how the Community Center, next to the Courthouse, looks after its recent renovation. The new floor looks wonderful! Managers Darchele and her husband Richard Vucinovich have worked very hard to create the bright and spacious feeling in the center. The floor is finally finished after years of working to make this happen. There is a lovely view through the French doors, where the Master Gardeners have worked to make this space beautiful. New air conditioners and many other details, give this sixty plus year old building a brand new look. Watch out for up-coming ribbon cutting of Lucky Star Cleaners! This business is moving into a new space, next to Coldspring United Methodist Church. It is only a few weeks away from the always popular Library Garage Sale! This will be held in Coldspring Community Center on October 5-7, 2017. If you wish to donate to this admirable cause, call Coldspring Library at (936) 653-3104.

Contact your chamber for an appointment with Director Bob Barragan of the S.B.D.C.
This is a free service to business and would be business owners. Questions, advice and ‘how to’ create proposals etc. are all welcome.
